

Entry Regulations

23 to 27 April, 2020

CinéDOC-Tbilisi (8th edition) will take place from 23-27 April in Tbilisi, Georgia.

To submit your documentary for selection, please read the entry regulations below.

1. General entry requirements

Deadlines for entry: 20th of January, 2020

Format and language of submitted films

Please submit your film online (by sending a password protected link). The films must have English subtitles.

2. Entry requirements for films about and from the Caucasus

The submission of entries are now open for the eighth edition of the festival for films produced, co-produced or directed in one of the three South Caucasus countries (Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan). Additionally, the submitted films can be produced anywhere in the world, but have to deal with the Caucasus region. Films of any length are accepted.

Georgian documentaries: can be selected for competitive sections of the festival only if they were NOT screened at other Georgian film festivals before. However, films that already had a national premiere are still eligible for non-competitive sections.

3. How to enter your film

Your entry will only be accepted if all the required materials and information are received on time. Please complete the entry form online via www.cinedoctbilisi.com in English.

Your film will only be taken into consideration when:

- You have submitted the entry form
- You have uploaded your film and sent us a password protected link

Your application will be considered once we have received the link to the film or the preview copies. If the film is selected, you are expected to provide additional information in a timely manner for the purposes of the festival catalogue, publicity and the screening of the film.

Documentaries may be eligible for different sections. In case of selection, the program department will decide for which section(s) a film is selected.

4. Authorizations in case of selection

Authorizations

After selection of a documentary, the festival has the right to:

- Use a maximum of ten minutes of video from the documentary for publicity and online purposes
- Use all publicity material to promote the festival
- Keep the DVDs of selected documentaries in its archive for non-circulating use and educational purposes
- Program the film free of charge within the framework of CinéDOC-on Tour screenings
- It is the responsibility of the applicant to secure clearance from the copyright holders of any copyrighted materials included within the submitted film. CinéDOC-Tbilisi will not be held responsible for the unauthorized inclusion of any copyrighted materials within or relating to the submitted film.
